June 8, 1961

(OO: NEW ORLEANS)

ReNOlet to NY, 9/7/61.

Enclosed herewith are eight copies of a letterhead memorandum.

Relet advised that [redacted] and PERCY E. SUTTON, both residents of NYC, had been arrested as freedom riders by the Jackson, Mississippi PD on 6/8/61.

NYO was requested to prepare a letterhead memorandum captioned as above setting forth results of indices, credit and criminal check on these individuals.

Although PERCY SUTTON is the subject of NY 100-113507, no information concerning SUTTON is being set forth in enclosed memorandum inasmuch as NYO files do not reflect sufficient information of a security nature concerning him. It is noted that OSI in 1953, conducted an investigation of SUTTON, who has been a captain in the US Air Force and former legal officer at the Dover Air Force Base, Dover, Delaware.

No information was developed by OSI to indicate SUTTON was or ever had been involved in Communist activities other than his registration with the Queens County Board of Elections in 1948, showing a preference for the American Labor Party.

Mollie Ilson, ELF, President, introduced Mark Lane, guest speaker, as the New York State assemblyman from Yorkville and Harlem areas of New York City, and as a modern abolitionist and a Freedom Rider. Lane stated that he has been criticized by many people, including President John F. Kennedy, for his actions in traveling to the southern states, being referred to as a "meddler from the north".

New York T-1, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on November 16, 1959, that the Kings County Communist Party (CP) Convention was held on November 13-14, 1959, at 3200 Coney Island Avenue, Brooklyn, New York. On November 14, 1959, delegates to the State Convention of the CP were voted upon. Mollie Ilson was elected as an alternate delegate.

Lane stated that he fought with the Army in World War II with one purpose in mind, which was for the whole country. He does not feel that he was an outsider in going to Montgomery, Alabama, and feels that the President should take an affirmative stand supporting the action of those people who wish to see that the Negro and the white can travel together.

On April 26, 1961, New York T-2, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that the New York Council to Abolish the Un-American Activities Committee sponsored a rally at Saint Nicholas Arena, 67 West 66th Street, New York City, on April 22, 1961, with Mark Lane included among the speakers.

On May 22, 1961, New York T-3, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that a membership meeting of the New York City Chapter of the National Lawyers Guild (NLG) was held on May 17, 1961, at the Victoria Hotel, 7th Avenue and 51st Street, New York City, with Mark Lane in attendance.

JEWISH WOMEN'S CLUBS

"The Jewish Fraternalist" dated October, 1947, self identified as the official publication of the Jewish People's Fraternal Order (JPFO) of the International Workers Order (IWO), on page 6, contained an article which reflected that the Emma Lazarus Division (ELD) of the JPFO was to hold its first national convention in New York City on November 15 and 16, 1947, after having been first established at a National Women's Conference called three years previously by the JPFO.

The "Morning Freiheit" on January 25, 1951, contained a report on the National Convention of the ELD of the JPFO which took place in New York City on January 20 and 21, 1951. At this convention it was noted that the ELD changed its name to Emma Lazarus Federation of Jewish Women's Clubs (ELF) and adopted a new constitution.

THE NEW YORK COUNCIL TO ABOLISH THE UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE

On March 9, 1961, a source advised that the New York Council To Abolish the Un-American Activities Committee (NYCAUAC), 150 West 34th Street, New York City, New York, was formed at a meeting held in New York City on November 17, 1960. This organization was founded principally through the efforts of [redacted] Field Representative of the National Committee To Abolish the Un-American Activities Committee (NCAUAC).

A second source advised on September 17, 1952, that [redacted] was a Communist Party member as of September, 1952.

The "National Guardian" in January 16, 1961, issue, page 7, column 1, contained an article which states that the NYCAUAC has only one objective: "to help the National Committee as vigorously as possible in its endeavors to mobilize the American people in a campaign to abolish the House Committee on Un-American Activities."

A third source furnished on March 9, 1961, a prospectus of the NCAUAC prepared principally by [redacted] [redacted] which in reference to "local abolition committees" stated that these committees may identify and coordinate their efforts as closely as they desire with NCAUAC, still maintaining their autonomy for as flexible and independent program as possible. The prospectus also stated that the NYCAUAC was responsible for coordinating abolition activities on the Atlantic coast.

Various sources have advised in April, 1961, that Communist Party members in the New York City area have been solicited to support activities of the NYCAUAC during attendance at Communist Party club meetings.

"Bryant said his daughter will now return to Central Ohio State College in Dayton, Ohio to finish her education.

"The 20-year-old student, who will be a junior this year, agreed to interrupt her education early in June when she decided to challenge Jackson's segregation policies.

On September 26, 1960, PH T-1 advised that he had observed a subscription receipt from the "Daily Worker" and "The Worker" in the name of [redacted] Swarthmore College, Swarthmore, Pa. The receipt reflected the payment of $5.00 on September 20, 1960.

"The Worker" is an East coast Communist newspaper.

The "Daily Worker" was an East coast Communist newspaper which suspended publication January 13, 1958.

PH T-2 advised that on October 2, 1960 [redacted] contacted the offices of "The Worker" in New York City and desired to confer with James Jackson, Editor of "The Worker." Jackson was not available and [redacted] mentioned that she was acting as a representative of a campus organization at Swarthmore College, Swarthmore, Pa. She wished to invite Jackson to speak at the college on the afternoon of October 23, 1960 as the representative of the Communist Party. She said the meeting was being sponsored under the auspices of a campus organization called "Forum for Free Speech." She said the purpose of the organization was to invite speakers to the campus who ordinarily would not be invited by other campus organizations. [redacted] said that Jackson would be expected to present the Communist Party's stand on election issues as well as the broader question of the role of the Communist Party in U. S. political life. [redacted] said that "a lot of people here, as there are in many places, are under the illusion that the CP is an agent of some international conspiracy and isn't interested in what is going on in the United States. She would like to clear up this misconception if it is at all possible." [redacted] mentioned that she and a friend had visited Jackson on another occasion.

the conference of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference held 9/28 and 29/61, at Nashville, Tenn. He has heard no mention made of this conference in his association with leaders of the NAACP in the Jacksonville, Fla. area.

It is his opinion, although he is not positive, that a few years ago the NAACP was outlawed in the State of Alabama and from that time on, the organization has operated under the name of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference.

JUDITH NORENE SCROGGINS

Cincinnati, Ohio

The "Cincinnati Enquirer", a daily morning newspaper published at Cincinnati, Ohio, in its issue of August 25, 1961, on page 21, had a photograph of "Judy Scroggins", and an accompanying article captioned "Local Girl, 19, Back From Freedom Ride". According to the article, Judy Scroggins, 603 Rockdale Avenue, Cincinnati, Ohio, "returned home by train last night from serving 20 days in the Mississippi State Penitentiary". It stated she had been arrested with seven white "freedom riders" July 29th, in Jackson, Mississippi, when the riders attempted to desegregate the Negro waiting room of the Greyhound Bus Station in that town. Because the arresting officers did not recognize her race she had been placed in the same part of the jail as were the white "riders". The article contained the following remarks of Scroggins: "We were given the maximum. A $200 fine and four months in jail. First they took us to the city jail, then to the county jail and finally to the state penitentiary at Parchman. Our cells in the state penitentiary were no more than 13 steps away from Death Row. Incidentally, I integrated all the Mississippi jails. I strongly believe in what we riders are doing. We have now aroused the Jackson Negroes to a sense of responsibility. They are now starting to have sit-ins. I want to go on working with CORE, and I want to study at Xavier. I had told CORE before I took that ride that I wanted to be released between August 21 and 25 so that I could get everything in order to go to school."

On August 8, 1961, Chief Robert Killeen, Xenia, Ohio Police Department, advised that there was no record of [redacted] in the files of his department.

Chief Killeen advised that the only picketing of a restaurant which occurred in Xenia, Ohio, took place in January, 1960, when Geyer's Restaurant, 15 West Main Street, Xenia, was the scene of a student demonstration and picketing. He stated that the restaurant was picketed for approximately one week during January, 1960, by white and Negro students from Central State College, Wilberforce, Ohio, and from Antioch College, Yellow Springs, Ohio.

Chief Killeen advised that it was his belief that the college students were members of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) on the respective college campuses and that they were joined in their picketing by very few NAACP members in the Xenia area. He stated that it had been the policy of Geyer's Restaurant to serve only white patrons and that rather than cater to Negro students the restaurant closed its business temporarily for repairs. He advised that the restaurant re-opened after approximately one month and changed its policy of service and that Negroes are now permitted to patronize it.

Chief Killeen advised that the picketing of Geyer's Restaurant was carried on in an orderly manner and that no disturbances of any nature were reported to his department. He stated that he personally observed the demonstration for several hours and did not assign any of his police officers to the scene. He stated that he did not take the names of any of the picketing students nor does he know the identity of any of the pickets.

On August 8, 1961, Chief JAMES MC KEE, Police Department of the Village of Yellow Springs, Ohio, and Sheriff RUSSELL BRADLEY, Greene County Sheriff's Office, Xenia, advised that they possessed no information concerning the picketing of Geyer's Restaurant, Xenia, during January, 1960, and that there was no information in their files concerning [REDACTED]

It is pointed out that records of the Jackson, Mississippi Police Department indicate that [REDACTED] admitted picketing a restaurant in Xenia, Ohio, but no date is reflected.

RACIAL MATTERS

E. APPROX. [redacted]

On September 5, 1961, Ben C. Collins, Chief of Police
Clarksdale, Mississippi, advised that on September 4, 1961
in the City Court, Clarksdale, Mississippi, [redacted] who had furnished her name as [redacted] at the time of her arrest on August 23, 1961 by the Clarksdale, Mississippi Police Department, was fined $200 and given a suspended sixty-day sentence on a charge of "breach of peace." [redacted] [redacted] were, in the same court and on the same charge, each fined $100 and given suspended thirty-day sentences.
Bond in the amount of $1,000 was set for [redacted] and $500 each for [redacted]. All three were released on bond and appealed their sentences to the County Court, Clarksdale, Mississippi.

On September 21, 1961, Sheriff L. A. Ross, Jr.,
Clarksdale, Mississippi, advised that on September 20, 1961,
in the County Court, Clarksdale, Mississippi, a jury found all three defendants in this matter guilty of the charge of "breach of peace." County Judge, E. M. Yerger, gave [redacted] [redacted] age [redacted] Clarksdale, Mississippi, a ninety-day jail sentence and a $200 fine, and [redacted]
[redacted] age [redacted] Clarksdale, Mississippi, [redacted]
and [redacted] age [redacted] Clarksdale,
Mississippi, each thirty-day jail sentences and $200 fines.

E. APPROX. [redacted]

E. APPROX. [redacted]

The case was appealed to the Circuit Court, Clarksdale, Mississippi, which court convenes in January, 1962; and the defendants were released on $1,000 bond each.

R. J. Brown, Vicksburg, Mississippi, who, with [redacted] [redacted] Jackson, Mississippi, represented the defendants, is reported to have stated he was basing the appeal on two contentions, one that the law under which the three defendants were convicted is unconstitutional, and the second contention that the law was being used as a mask to enforce State segregation laws.

DECLASSIFICATION AUTHORITY DERIVED FROM:
FBI AUTOMATIC DECLASSIFICATION GUIDE
DATE 11-30-2009

Re: Isaac Reynolds, Jr.

The June 12, 1961, Final Edition of the "Detroit News", a daily Detroit, Michigan, newspaper, on page 10A, column 4, carried an article which reflected that eight Detroit Negro students, one a "Freedom Rider", and the others participants in recent "sit-in" demonstrations in southern cities, were presented scrolls recognizing their "leadership in the cause of democracy, courage in the face of violence, and dedication to the cause of freedom and equality" by the Michigan Friends of the South on June 11, 1961. Isaac Reynolds, Jr., 5049 Vermont, Detroit, Michigan, a former Wayne State University student, who took part in one of the "Freedom Rides" in Alabama was among those honored. Scrolls were presented by State Supreme Court Justice Theodore Souris, who, according to this article, stated he attended the affair as a personal representative of Governor Swainson.

Michigan Friends of the South (MFS)

The following sources have all furnished reliable information in the past:

First source, on June 26, 1961, supplied MFS literature which stated that this organization came into existence a year prior with its first public meeting having been held during June, 1960. The stated objective in the beginning was to raise money for use in a specific southern community, "to help the disenfranchised people of this community to register and vote". The present objective is to concentrate its efforts in the future of Alabama.

Second source advised that [redacted] a member of the National Committee, Communist Party, and [redacted] of the Michigan District, Communist Party, on June 6, 1961, described the MFS as "left influenced".

Third source on July 31, 1961, stated that the MFS is currently in existence and is not now being mass influenced by known members of the Michigan District, Communist Party, due to its small membership.

The June 3, 1961, edition of "The New Crusader", a weekly newspaper published in Chicago, Illinois, on page 1, column 5, carried an article which reflected that Isaac Reynolds, Jr., a veteran, a junior majoring in Business Administration, was among a group of six other "Freedom Riders" who had arrived in Chicago on May 31, 1961, to speak and raise funds for further assaults and segregation in the Deep South.

Records of the Detroit Police Department and the Wayne County Sheriff's Office, Detroit, were checked on August 30, 1961, by Investigation Clerk [redacted] and no information identifiable with [redacted] was located.

On August 25, 1961, [redacted] Credit Data Corporation, advised Investigative Clerk [redacted] that [redacted] Detroit, had been in file since 1939 and that his credit was satisfactory.
